AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of April, 1761.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 27th of October last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, expired upon the 29th Day of this Instant April — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant April, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." Copenhagen, May 9. The King of Denmark is now so well recovered, as to be able to quit his Residence at Jagersbourg, and has accordingly declared his Intention of removing to Friedenburg on this Day Se'nnight.

Hague, May 12. By Letters from the Allied Army we have an Account, that M. Luckner having received Intelligence that a Detachment of the Garri-son of Gottinghen had marched upon an Expedition towards the Hartz, and in order to raise Contributions upon the Country of Hanover, he had immediately set out in Search of that Corps, with a Body of 100 Hussars under his Command, and that having come up with the Enemy, who consisted of 300 Horse, on the 5th Instant in the Morning, he had had the good Fortune to rout them entirely, and to take Prisoners, one Officer, 30 Troopers, and 61 Horses.

That the same Day Captain Brinsky, who had been detached by M. Luckner, had likewise attacked them with 100 Hussars and 50 of the Brunsvic Cavalry, and with such Success, that he had driven them before him into Gottinghen, and had taken Prisoners 2 Captains, 1 Lieutenant, 2 Cornets, and 53 Dragoons; and that their Commander M. de Belfunce had narrowly escaped being himself taken in the Pursuit.

There is also an Account, that Captain Riedesel, at the Head of 100 of the Brunsvic Hussars, having attacked the Village of Spielen beyond the Fulda, in which was an Officer with 50 of the Enemy, had taken 30 of them, and killed the rest, with the Loss of 5 Hussars killed, and some few wounded.

From Meissen we hear, that the Prussian Cavalry had passed the Elbe at Torgau on the 3d Instant, and the Infantry the next Day, on a Bridge thrown over that River at Lorenkirck near Strehlen, and were to encamp that Night at Wildenhayn. It is added that the News there was, that General Laudohn had already began his Operations in Silesia.

Letters from the Lower Rhine observe, that the Marshal Prince de Soubise was still at Dusseldorff the 8th Instant; and that M. de Castella, who commanded last Year at Wezel, being dead, was succeeded in that Government by M. de Voyer.

Hague, May 15. We hear from the Lower Rhine, that the French under Marshal Soubise talked of forming three Camps immediately; one at Rees, one at Dusseldorff, and one at Wezel.

The Prince of Hesse Philipstal, Governor of Breda, and General of Horse in the Service of the States General, died on the 13th at Breda.

In Saxony nothing remarkable had passed. Prince Henry was encamped at Schlettau, and General Hulsen at Katzenhausen, on his Right Flank. Marshal Daun had as yet made no Movement, his Army continuing in their Quarters of Cantonment.
